PLEASE BE ADVISED Playing Select, Club, Metro, or for any other hockey affiliation other than Stoneham Youth Hockey in 2004 – 2005 will automatically void this application for financial hardship consideration. In addition the following conditions apply:

- If a player drops out of SYH to play for another Hockey affiliation while under this financial hardship agreement then all fees incurred up to the date of separation must be paid in full.
- If a player is found playing for another Hockey affiliation while under this financial hardship agreement such player will be temporarily suspended from all activities under Stoneham Youth Hockey until full payment of ice bill is received.

Failure to comply with payment demand will result in child being permanently suspended from Stoneham Youth Hockey and will be reported to DISTRICT TEN Registrar - Third Middlesex County and Massachusetts Hockey Association.

Stoneham Youth Hockey has in place alternate payment plans, which allow people to extend their ice bill payments beyond the August 31, 2004 deadline. Depending on the number of children playing for SYH this season, please follow the plan below. If you are unable to keep to your payment plan please notify Kevin DeBenedetto at 781-279-2171. You must sign and return this form with you first payment.
